To Whom it May Concern:

This letter confirms that Atomic Learning, Inc. is the designer, developer, and sole source provider of the Atomic Learning 21st Century Skills Professional Development and Technology Integration Collection, Technology Skills Library and the Assistive Technology Tutorials. All services, resources, and documentation for the Atomic Learning Library program are only available from Atomic Learning, Inc. As such, Atomic Learning understands it meets the criteria of a "sole source" provider for subscriptions to the Atomic Learning Library.

If you have questions concerning this, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Dan Meyer
CEO
